

Phil of the future has been canceled!

But we've got a plan to bring it back.

The Save Disney Shows movement was able to bring back the popular Disney Channel show Kim Possible due to fan pressure, so there's no reason we can't save Phil as well. There is power in numbers, and our numbers are growing... but we need everyone who loves the show as much as we do – no matter your age – in our effort.
